

Section Name	Field Name	Field and/or Section Description
TITLE ACORD 66 LA (4/98)	Louisiana Dwelling Supplement- Loss Settlement- For Use With DWG 2 & 3	Louisiana law provides that, in cases of total loss to "inanimate, immovable property," the limit of insurance used to determine the premium charge will be the amount used by the insurance company to calculate the loss payment, without any "deduction or offset, unless a different method is used in the computation of loss. " If a different method is used, both the policy and the application for insurance must state the actual method of loss settlement. The language in ACORD 66 LA is the language recommended by the Property Insurance Association of Louisiana for use with applications for Dwelling Forms 2 or 3 coverage. Use ACORD 66 LA with ACORD 89, Residential Section. ACORD 89 must be used in conjunction with ACORD 88, Personal Insurance Application, Applicant Information Section. Note: This form is now mandatory when submitting applications for this type of coverage to either the Louisiana Joint Reinsurance Plan or the Louisiana Insurance Underwriting Plan.